important details for attending services . . .

Dear Friends,
On the following pages, you will find all of the information that you will need to participate fully in the High Holy Days at LBT including: a schedule of High Holy Day services, Book of Remembrance information, important details about tickets, parking, and more.

Enjoy your summer and we look forward to sharing the High Holy Days with you beginning with Selichot on Saturday, September 16th. Be sure to join us as the season concludes on October 11th with our festive Simchat Torah celebration.

(see details below)

L'Shana Tova,

Abigail Goldberg Spiegel, LBT Executive Director

friday, october 6 - 6:15pm PICNIC IN THE SUKKAH . . . SHABBAT | SUKKOT SERVICE

PICNIC | RELIGIOUS SCHOOL PROGRAM

Don't miss this festive Shabbat service with a focus on the themes of the season, joined by our Religious School students. Following the service, we will go into the Sukkah to shake the lulav and the etrog. Bring your own picnic and fulfill the mitzvah of eating in the Sukkah.

wednesday, october 11 - 6:00pm SIMCHAT TORAH CELEBRATION

Join us for one of the most joyous nights of the year! Simchat Torah celebrates the completion of the annual Torah reading cycle. On this night, we unroll the entire Torah into a great circle and dance with the Torah. The celebration concludes with ice cream and Israeli dancing for all.

selichot: STUDY AND SERVICE IN PREPARATION FOR THE UPCOMING HIGH HOLY DAYS Saturday Evening, September 16th 8:00pm Study | followed by a 10:00 pm Service

On the High Holy Days we are called to deeply examine our lives and strive to change for the better. This is too big an undertaking to do well in two days. Our tradition urges us to use the entire month of Elul, the month preceding the High Holy Days, for this transformative work. On Selichot, the Saturday night before Rosh Hashanah, we gather for an evening of study, song, and prayer on the theme of forgiveness, as we turn our thoughts to the High Holy Days. Watch for details.

book of remembrance

Remembering plays an important role in the Jewish life cycle. It is our custom to publish a High Holy Days Book of Remembrance as a loving reminder of those we hold close to our hearts.

As we did last year, we will include special prayers and meditations to help those who are bereaved and for use when observing a Yahrzeit (death anniversary).

This year our book will be distributed at Yom Kippur morning, afternoon, and Yizkor services.

Please use this form for the names of those you wish to memorialize and return as soon as possible, and no later than Friday, September 8 to ensure that all names will be included in the printed book.

Please include the following names in the Book of Remembrance:

I have placed a check mark in the box next to the names of family members who have died since last Yom Kippur, October 11, 2016. I understand that ONLY their names will be read aloud during our Yom Kippur service.

Please use the names submitted last year.

I / we would like to add the names listed below.

Remembered by: List your name/s as you wish them to appear:

Important Note: Names are not automatically renewed. Please submit this form to include your loved one;

Enclosed is my donation of $ _____* to the Memorial Fund (a minimum contribution of $18 per name is suggested) and larger gifts, prompted by your own generosity will be gratefully appreciated. * Include amount in left column.

Complete form/s and return to LBT using enclosed envelope. Questions? Call 310.476.2861
